My dear Mother,

I have just time before post-time to write you a note for Saturday. I have been so busy lately that I have had no time for writing. I was in Southampton all day on Wednesday and have been there all day to-day, having just got back. I am mixed up with the machines for the Schneider Trophy, which are being

Quiet down there.

I will write again soon.
No time now for more

Love from us all to you both,
Your own son

Harold.
