My dearest Mother,

You will have read about the severe raid we had last night & no doubt be wondering about us. We were in a shelter nearby. The flat escaped and there was no serious damage in the immediate vicinity. My office, however, was wrecked. I believe there has been a lot of fresh damage but I have had the day off and have not been to see it.

There is not much other news.

I hope to hear from you soon. The boys seem to be settling down at school.

Mayone sends her love,

Your own son

Harold.
