The present Secretary of State for Air, as you may have noticed, is Sir Samuel Hoare, and he didn't impress me any, but I liked his Under Secretary, His Grace the Duke of Sutherland, who took the Chair on the second day. During his session some speakers started — 'Mr Chairman and Gentlemen', others — 'My Lord Duke and Gentlemen, still others — 'Your Grace and Gentlemen. It didn't matter much of course, but a bookmaker would done well in bets on the mode of address of the next speaker.

There's an organ-grinder outside now playing all my favourites, so it's hard to concentrate — 'If Winter Comes' — on this letter.

I suppose the Murray ensemble will be estate dwellers by the time I get back — The Last Waltz?, won't they?

I've got an idea that there's something I particularly wanted to say, but it's slipped me: anyhow, it was not important, I expect.

I start at the N.P.L.

NATIONAL PHYSICAL LABORATORY

on April 23rd, so I get my full Easter Holiday. I heard about it from Mr Southwell this morning. He says thus R.V. Southwell so I fancy he must write nearly as well as I do.

I have it from a reliable source, — Col. Richmond, to be precise, — that that will definitely be something this year, an Imperial Airship Service inaugurated to the Far East: twice a week to India (7 days run) with a weekly extension to 2000.264

The present Secretary of State for Air, as you may have noticed, is Sir Samuel Hoare, and he didn't impress me any, but I liked his Under Secretary, His Grace the Duke of Sutherland, who took the Chair on the second day. During his session some speakers started – 'Mr Chairman and Gentlemen', others – 'My Lord Duke and Gentlemen, still others – 'Your Grace and Gentlemen. It didn't matter much of course, but a bookmaker would done well in bets on the mode of address of the next speaker.

There's an organ-grinder outside now playing all my favourites, so its hard to concentrate – 'If Winter Comes' – on this letter.

I suppose the Murray ensemble will be estate dwellers by the time I get back – 'The Last Waltz? – won't they?

I've got an idea that there's something I particularly wanted to say, but its slipped me: any how, it was not important, I expect.

I start at the N.P.L. NATIONAL PHYSICAL LABORATORY on April 23rd, so I get my full Easter Holiday. I heard about it from Mr Southwell this morning. He signs thus –

…… so I fancy he must write nearly as well as I do.

I have it from a reliable source, - Col. Richmond, to be precise, - that there will definitely be some time this year, an Imperial Airship Service inaugurated to the Far East, twice a week to India (7 days run) with a weekly extension to …